AMERICAN AIRLINES GROUP, INC.
4333 Amon Carter Boulevard
Fort Worth, TX 76155,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Latoya Lewis, by and through her undersigned counsel, herein complains and demands damages, upon the causes of action set forth below:

I. PARTIES AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, Latoya Lewis is an adult individual currently residing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

2. Defendant, US Airways, Inc. ("US Airways") is upon information and belief an Arizona corporation with a principal place of business in the State of Arizona located at 4000 E. Sky Harbor Boulevard, Phoenix, Arizona 85034.

3. At all times relevant hereto, US Airways regularly and systemically conducted continuous and substantial business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including Philadelphia County, through its sale, marketing, and provision of travel services.

4. Defendant, American Airlines Inc. is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business located at 4333 Amon Carter Boulevard, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

5. Defendant, America Airlines Group, Inc. is the parent company of American Airlines, Inc (collectively "American Airlines").

6. American Airlines Group, Inc.'s principal place of business is located at 4333 Amon Carter Boulevard, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

7. Upon information and belief, US Airways merged with American Airlines on December 28, 2015.

8. At all times relevant hereto, American Airlines regularly and systemically conducted continuous and substantial business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including Philadelphia County, through its sale, marketing, and provision of travel services.

9. Venue is proper in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1391(b)(2), insofar as a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in the Eastern District.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

10. On September 11, 2015, Ms. Lewis was a passenger on American Airlines flight 1798.

11. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants acted and/or failed to act through their agents, servants, employees, predecessors, successors, and/or workmen, and accordingly, any negligent act and/or omission committed by the Defendants' agents, servants, employees, predecessors, successors, and/or workmen imposes liability on Defendants under the laws of agency, respondeat superior, and/or vicarious liability.

12. At all times relevant hereto, Ms. Lewis was a business invitee of Defendants and, therefore, Defendants owed her the highest duty under the law for her safety, health, and well-being.

13. At all times relevant hereto, Ms. Lewis required the use of a wheelchair for boarding and disembarking airplanes.

14. Prior to boarding the flight, Ms. Lewis had been using her personal wheelchair.

15. In order to board the flight, American Airlines/US Airways' employees, agents, and/or workmen transferred Ms. Lewis to an American Airlines/US Airways wheelchair.

16. After Ms. Lewis was transferred to the American Airlines/US Airways wheelchair, an employee, agents, and/or workman of American Airlines/US Airways transported her onto the airplane.

17. While she was being transported onto the airplane, the American Airlines/ US Airways employees, agents, and/or workmen negligently, carelessly, and/or recklessly operated the American Airlines/US Airways wheelchair when said individual caused Ms. Lewis' leg to become entangled under a passenger seat resulting in serious and permanent injuries to Ms. Lewis.

18. Upon information and belief, the American Airlines/US Airways employees, agents and/or workmen failed to properly secure Ms. Lewis in the wheelchair, including the proper securing of her torso and legs.

19. Prior to the incident, Defendants knew or should have known that wheelchair bound passengers could be seriously harmed and/or injured by the negligent, careless and/or reckless operation of American Airlines/US Airways wheelchairs.

20. Defendants, individually and/or collectively, owed a duty to inspect American Airlines/US Airways wheelchairs which were used to transport passengers.

21. Defendants, individually and/or collectively, had a duty to hire, train, and retain competent employees, contractors, agents and/or workmen who were responsible for the transport, transfer and/or supervision of wheelchair bound passengers.

22. Defendants, individually and/or collectively had actual and/or constructive notice that their employees, agents, and/or workmen failed to appropriately secure and/or transport Ms. Lewis on the American Airlines/US Airways wheelchair.

23. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to properly maintain Defendants' airplane and/or equipment from unreasonably dangerous and hazardous conditions which could harm passengers, such as Ms. Lewis.

24. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to properly hire, train, and/or retain competent employees, agents and/or workmen.

25. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to provide adequate and/or suitable wheelchair transportation for loading and/or unloading disabled passengers from Defendants' aircraft.

26. As a direct, proximate, and substantial result of the negligent, careless, and reckless operation of the wheelchair Ms. Lewis suffered serious and permanent injuries, including but not limited to a distal comminuted fracture of her right femur, post-traumatic osteoarthritis of her right knee, and right knee injuries and symptoms, impairments, and limitations caused by the aforementioned injuries, as well as other contusions and bruises, all of which are serious and permanent in nature and constitute a serious impairment of a bodily function, required medical attention, caused her to suffer great pain and suffering, loss of life's enjoyment, potential diminishment of earning capacity, potential loss of wages, medical expenses, scarring and/or disfigurement, embarrassment and humiliation, and other emotional, financial and physical injuries.

27. As a direct, proximate, and substantial result of Defendants' individual and/or collective negligence, carelessness, and recklessness as herein described, Ms. Lewis required medical treatment and care and may require care in the future, including surgery, which would not have been necessary but for Defendants' negligence.

28. As a direct, proximate, and substantial result of Defendants' individual and/or collective negligence, carelessness, and recklessness as herein described, Ms. Lewis has suffered and will suffer in the future pain and suffering, scarring, disfigurement, humiliation, embarrassment, inconvenience, aches and pains, restrictions of movement, and the loss of ability to engage in and enjoy normal pursuits and activities of daily living.

29. As a direct, proximate, and substantial result of Defendants' individual and/or collective negligence, carelessness, and recklessness as herein described, Ms. Lewis has developed or may develop in the future painful conditions and/or arthritic conditions and/or other future medical complications due to her injuries.

30. As a direct, proximate, and substantial result of Defendants' individual and/or collective negligence, carelessness, and recklessness as herein described, Ms. Lewis has incurred and may incur in the future medical expenses due to her injuries.

31. As a direct, proximate, and substantial result of Defendants' individual and/or collective negligence, carelessness, and recklessness as herein described, Ms. Lewis has suffered lost earnings, and may in the future suffer a loss of earnings and/or earnings capacity.

COUNT I - NEGLIGENCE
PLAINTIFF LATOYA LEWIS V. ALL DEFENDANTS

32. The above paragraphs are incorporated herein by reference as if the same were fully set forth herein.

33. Defendants US Airways and American Airlines, individually and/or collectively owned, possessed, controlled, supervised, leased, maintained, and/or were otherwise responsible for the aircraft and wheelchair involved in Ms. Lewis' incident and had an obligation to ensure the safety of the aircraft and wheelchair as described herein.

34. Defendants US Airways and American Airlines, negligently, carelessly, and recklessly breached the duties it owed Ms. Lewis and the public at large by:

- a. Failing to maintain the airplane and wheelchair in a reasonably safe condition;
- b. Failing to provide Plaintiff a safe means of boarding and exiting the airplane;

- c. Failing to properly inspect Defendants' airplane and wheelchair for hazardous conditions;
- d. Failing to coordinate with Defendants agents, employees, and/or workmen to ensure that Ms. Lewis would be safely transported on and off the airplane;
- e. Failing to design, maintain, engineer, fabricate, plan, plot, supervise and/or establish proper procedures for transporting wheelchair bound passengers on and off airplanes;
- f. Failing to warn Plaintiff of the dangerous conditions created and/or permitted to exist by Defendants;
- g. Failing to adopt, enact, employ, and/or enforce proper and adequate safety programs;
- h. Failing to use an adequate and/or appropriate wheelchair to transport wheelchair bound patients on and/off of Defendants' airplane;
- i. Failing to identify dangerous conditions of the airplane and/or wheelchair;
- j. Failing to appropriately brace and/or secure Ms. Lewis in Defendants' wheelchair;
- k. Failing to adequately and/or properly maintain, inspect, and/or repair Defendants' wheelchair;
- l. Failing to recognize, correct, and/or warn against the dangerous condition posed by failing to appropriately secure Ms. Lewis in the wheelchair;
- m. Failing to recognize, correct, and/or warn against the dangerous condition posed by the condition of the wheelchair and/or airplane;
- n. Failing to discover unreasonably dangerous conditions on the airplane and/or wheelchair, failing to take reasonable measures to remove correct, protect, and/or warn those, specifically Ms. Lewis, of the same;
- o. Failing to use adequate materials and/or equipment to transport passengers;
- p. Failing to act reasonable under the circumstances;
- q. Failing to hire, train, and retain competent employees, agents, and/or workmen; and
- r. Violating applicable codes, regulations and standards.

35. As a direct, factual and proximate result of Defendants' negligence, carelessness, and recklessness, Ms. Lewis suffered and continues to suffer from the injuries and damages described above and incorporated by reference herein.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands damages against the Defendants, jointly and severally, in a sum in excess of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00), exclusive of interest and allowable costs of suit and brings this action to recover same. Plaintiff further demands punitive damages.

THE PLAINTIFF CLAIMS TRIAL BY JURY.
